EXTENSION SERVICE
OFFICE OF COOPERATIVE EXTENSION WORK, WASHINGTON, D. C.

THIS LOOKS GOOD

An Excellent Service Record
Prepared by M. C. Wilson

Director M. S. McDowell of Pennsylvania in his annual report for 1925 gives some interesting data on the length of service of county agricultural agents in that State.

Sixty-five of the 67 counties in the State have county agents, organized extension work having been under way in these counties 9.6 years on the average. During the 14 years since the first county agent was employed there have been but 52 changes in personnel. Fourteen of the 65 counties have had two changes in agents and 22 counties one change, leaving 29 counties where the first agent employed is still on the job. No county has had more than two changes in agents. The average length of service for all agents including those who have left the service as well as those in the service at the end of 1925 is 5.3 years. Of the present county agents one has served 14 years, two 13 years, one 12 years, two 11 years and six 10 years.

In Pennsylvania the entire salary of the county agent is paid by the College from State and Federal funds, travel and other expenses being met from county appropriations. Detailed information by counties follows:
